

The Invitations of Metatronic Life & Healing

First Contact

Anyone can now engage with this work, simply and at a minimal cost.

- Free Introductory Talks online open to all.
- Metatron's Arc, the possibility of being part of the solution to our planet's problems.
- The Immune Education Series – keeping you safe whether you have a vaccine or not.
- The themed series of three affordable online healing sessions which can be taken singly or as a series – an amazing opportunity to have profound healing on tap, and recorded so that it can be accessed later again and again.

Stepping in

- Sacred Ground – a Metatronic Beginning a simple and yet profound gift bringing those who are interested into contact via Attunements and Transmissions, in this case of the three fundamental wounded relationships with the Feminine, Masculine and Divine – that's why it is called Sacred Ground.

The Pathway

- Seven Steps taking you through a path that evolves you and keeps on evolving you through the Attunements and Transmissions
- First there is Reconnection and then the rebuilding of your "Tree of Life" which give you the connection and clarity to heal the Ancestral Wounds, Reactive Emotions and Mental Positions.
- This creates the space for the empowerment of the Masters and the Spirit of Creation, via the elements, from deep mystery to the Earth.

Health & Healing

- The Student Deepening Days give the gift of Attunements and Transmissions into your system, bringing Vitamins and Healing Foods to strengthen your immune System and Life Force.

Ongoing Support for students

- Online Healings and Meditations based around the first 3 Steps with Metatronic Teachers.
- A Global Student gathering, one for each season.

Metatronic Healing Training

A way of allowing not just those of you who want to learn Metatronic Healing professionally, but any of you who want to further your understanding of how to offer this gift to others.

- The continued development of a Foundation Training for all interested in knowing more about their healing abilities.
- The Advanced Training, which is quite frankly incredible!

The Awakening Stream

Metatronic Life and Healing has three main purposes or Strands:

- To affirm who you really are – activating the Heart.
- To clear that which hides this light – Lifting the Story.
- To release that which makes you believe it is all real – The Awakening Stream Classes.

The Awakening Stream is beyond words, but enough to say that this points to the future direction of spiritual work that is only now becoming available on the planet. This powerful and awesome class is delivered with simplicity, and you are given information and guidance on how to embody the presence and stillness that is revealed by this class.

This is quite a breadth of engagement and to have all of this accessible through one pathway is truly awesome and inspiring. With this I feel we have something which we can respectfully and proudly offer to anyone, because within it there is opportunity not only to begin, but to go “all the way”.
